Going Green Night

2009 NES/TNA Going Green Night TDEC – TP3 Participating Sponsor

As part of the event on June 13th, Sounds players will wear special green-colored uniforms during the game that the team will auction to the public during the game, with all proceeds going to the benefit of the Nashville Sounds Foundation's charitable efforts. Representatives from your company will have the opportunity to be at the game with a stadium kiosk at the ballpark to help fans learn the importance of "going green" and demonstrate ways in which they can become more energy-efficient in their businesses and homes. Before the game, a representative will be able to address the crowd to draw attention to the company's involvement in the night. Package also includes 20 tickets to the game.

Throughout the evening, public address announcements and scoreboard recognition will thank your company for their involvement in helping to organize the event.
